

MYRA NORTON NAMED ONE OF MARYLAND'S TOP 100 WOMEN

The Daily Record Announces 2008 Maryland Top 100 Women

Baltimore, March 2008 – Community Analytics' Chief Executive Officer, Myra Norton, was recognized by The Daily Record as one of Maryland's Top 100 Women for 2008. The Daily Record is a daily, statewide source for business and legal news in Maryland.

This year marks the 13th anniversary for this esteemed Top 100 award. Over the years, The Daily Record has recognized more than 750 high-achieving Maryland women and pays respect to these individuals who are making an impact through their leadership, community service, and mentoring.

The Maryland Top 100 Women award was created to recognize successful female professionals who also give back to their professions and their communities by mentoring others and by personal community involvement. Each year The Daily Record organizes a high profile event to spotlight their elite 100 at the Meyerhoff Symphony Hall.

"I am deeply honored to be included among this group of talented and committed professionals," Norton pronounced. "I hope to live up to this recognition in both my personal and professional life. "

Norton was largely recognized for her accomplishments in growing Community Analytics and providing outstanding mentorship. The Maryland's Top 100 Women magazine, which includes a profile of Norton and the other women will be previewed at the awards ceremony on Monday, May 12th and inserted in the Friday, May 16th edition of The Daily Record.
